Maryland FBLA Travels to Annapolis

Region 8 Vice President Joshua Dixon shaking hands with Governor O'Malley.

On February 6, 2012, the state officer team traveled to Annapolis to visit the governor of Maryland, Martin O'Malley. During their visit with the governor, the state officers discussed current political issues and events. The state officers also had the opportunity to inform the governor on Maryland FBLA's goals and latest projects. The state officers were proud to represent Maryland FBLA at the state's capital!

Lead the Way with the BAA!

For FBLA members who continually go above and beyond, the BAA's (Business Achievement Awards) offer the opportunity to prove their commitment and involvement in the organization. Earning a Business Achievement Award is a prestigious honor, and members who earn the award demonstrate their understanding of each of FBLA's goals and their dedication. Members who participate in the Business Achievement Awards program are recognized on the national level, which is a huge honor for every member. If interested, members should visit the National FBLA website, check out the activities associated with the BAA's, and talk
